O MY LORD, MAKE ME STEADFAST UPON SALAH AND ALSO MY OFFSPRING. O
MY LORD, ACCEPT MY PRAYER O MY LORD, FORGIVE ME AND MY PARENTS AND THE BELIEVERS ON THE DAY OF JUDGEMENT

- Now Say Salam, First turn your head toward the right side and focus eyes on the right shoulder.

- Now turn left – focus eyes on the left shoulder and say:

-: IMPORTANT QUESTIONS: -

Q: What Invalidate the salah?

Ans: The things that invalidate the salah are well known, but the number differs according to differences among the jurists. They are as follows:

- Anything which invalidates Wudu, such as breaking wind or eating camel meat.
- Uncovering the `Awrah deliberately. But if it is uncovered by accident and what is uncovered is only a little, or if a lot becomes uncovered, he covers it immediately, then the salah is not invalidated.
- Turning away from the Qiblah to a large extent.
- Presence of impurity on one's body, clothes, or in the place where one is praying. If he notices it or remembers it during the salah and removes it immediately, then his salah is valid. Similarly, if he does not find out about it until after the salah is over, his salah is still valid.
- Excessive continuous movement during the salah for no essential reason.
- Omitting one of the pillars (essential parts) of the salah, such as bowing and prostration.
- Deliberately doing an extra pillar, such as bowing.
- Deliberately doing some pillars before others (changing the order).
- Deliberately saying the Salam before completing the salah.
- Deliberately changing the meaning whilst reciting.

- Deliberately omitting one of the obligatory parts of salah, such as the first Tashahhud. However, if a person forgets, his salah is valid but he must do the prostration of forgetfulness (Sujud As-Sahw).
- Deciding (intending in the heart) to stop praying.
- Laughing out loud. Merely smiling does not invalidate the salah.
- Deliberately speaking. If one speaks by mistake or out of ignorance of the ruling, the salah is not invalidated.
- Intentional eating and drinking (while praying).

Q: If someone unintentionally missed a rakat, sajda or maybe an Allahu Akbar will his/her salat be invalid?

Ans: If you have unintentionally forgot any rakat or anything else during Salah and if you got remember before the ending then in the last rakat you should perform Sajda e Sahu before performing Salam and so your Salah becomes valid, and if you got remember that something is missing after finished Salah, then, it is better to rejoin it, as this will be an obedient act from your side and indeed! Allah will surely accept whatever the best of our performances.

Q: If someone has been wrongly doing all of his/her salat in his/her lifetime, will he/she be held accountable on the day of judgement?

Ans: If one has done it unintentionally and died then Allah is the most merciful and beneficent, and therefore, he will forgive him in sha Allah. But, if the one is alive and still performing Salah in the wrong way, then it is our responsibility to state him/her the righteous thing and teachings of Muhammad (P.B.U.H) so that he/she could return to the right way and if still he/she is performing the Salah in the wrong way then he/she will definitely be held accountable on the day of Judgement.
